

AARS Annual Lantern Awards Nomination Form

AARS "Ones to Watch" Award

The AARS "Ones to Watch" Award is awarded to a person in railroad management who, through his or her management style and achievements, is considered to have contributed to the success of his or her railroad and is expected to continue to provide valuable industry leadership. To be considered for the "Ones to Watch" Award, the candidate must be nominated by a current AARS member. The candidate does not have to be a current AARS member to be considered.

Deadline: June 15 each year

Criteria: Information about the nominee should be provided in the following format.

Name of Person Nominating the Candidate:

Title:

Company:

Relationship to the Candidate:

Phone:

Email:

Address: _____

Name of Nominee:

Title:

Company:

Phone:

Email:

Address:

For each criteria listed below, please provide information that demonstrates the candidate's fulfillment of that criteria.

- I. Must be in current position for at least two years. Provide a career path history/resume. Exceptions to the two year requirement will be considered, but must be accompanied with explanation of career path.
- II. Include examples of success in role such as efficiency or safety improvements along with metrics.

- III. At least three references (at least one must be a current supervisor of the candidate, the others can be a former supervisor or person in a management role who can provide insight regarding candidate's performance).